

SwampBats Internships

Interested in becoming an intern with the Keene Swamp Bats?

Operation interns are responsible for making sure the daily task of the SwampBats organization are done properly and efficiently. These task include:

- Working one on one with sponsors to ensure their night at the field goes as they foresee
- Preparing and helping execute Reading with Ribby player visits
- Picking up and dropping off misc. products (food, drinks, decorations)
- Player airport runs
- Coordinating and working events, player events, and fundraisers
- Organizing and working 2 weeks of baseball camp

Skills:

- Comfortable communicating via phone, email, and in person
- Strong communication skills required
- Ability work in a high stress environment
- Commitment to a professional career path
- Flexible in all situations
- Willing to work nontraditional hours (nights, weekends, some early mornings)

Media Relations and Promotion are responsible for all things social media, along with daily communication with fans.

- Facebook, Twitter, Instagram
- Website everything **
- Pictures/videos – during the game and post-game
- Post-game press release
- Post-game interview
- Stat Sheets assistance
- Promotions
- Program book bio and head shot (pre-season)
- Feature articles

Broadcasting Intern – Voice of the SwampBats

- Broadcast every game(play by play) - Road and Home games - MRG/League Streaming
- Heads execution of stat sheet
- Website player stats
- Create and record the commercials at MRG
- On-air interview during and after the game
- Commercials (via league streaming ONLY)

Note: Both media relations and broadcast intern may be asked to do miscellaneous task throughout the summer when organization is in need such as an airport run.